Prohibited and Restricted Items

Prohibited and restricted goods include:

- Weapons such as firearms, flick knives, sword sticks; and protection sprays.
- Objectionable (indecent) articles such as video tapes, films, records, CD-ROMs, and publications.
- Illicit drugs and drug paraphernalia.
- Endangered species of Flora and Fauna, and products derived from these endangered species.

Personal Concessions

Your personal concession allows you to bring into New Zealand free of duty the following:

- Goods obtained overseas and/or purchased duty free in New Zealand with a total combined value of not more than NZ$700 (don't count clothing, toiletries and jewellery intended for your own personal use and not for gift, sale, or exchange); and, if you are 17 years of age or over,
- Three bottles (or other containers) each containing not more than 1125ml of spirits, liqueur, or other spirituous beverages; and

If you exceed your concession in relation to tobacco products or alcoholic beverages duty and Goods and Services Tax is payable regardless of the amount.

17 years is the age limit prescribed in international tourism treaties to which this country is a contracting party. The Sale of Liquor Act 1989 and the Smoke-free Environments Act 1990 prohibits the sale of alcoholic beverages and tobacco products to persons under the age of 18. This restriction also applies to New Zealand duty free outlets.

If you are carrying, on your person or in your baggage, cash in any currency to the value of NZ$10,000 or more, you must report this to a Customs officer when you are completing passport formalities on arrival in New Zealand. If anyone you are responsible for, who is travelling with you, has cash to that value, you must tell the Customs officer about that too. Under the Financial Transactions Reporting Act 1996, it is an offence to fail to report as instructed here.

Biographical information and Part 4 of the New Zealand Passenger Arrival Card are required to be produced pursuant to Regulation 26 of the Customs and Excise Regulations 1996.

WARNING: The importation of prohibited goods, smuggling, and using false receipts brings the risk of fines, loss of goods, or even prison. Think, is it worth the risk?
